

Kirtlington Wildlife and Conservation Society

Programme 2014-2015

2014

October 1st	Shotover then and now: thrills and spills with 100 years of data	Ivan Wright
Sunday November 2nd	Village pond working party (in conjunction with Oxford Conservation Volunteers)
November 5th	The Kirtlington Death's Head Hawkmoth	Chris Powles & Julian Howe
December 3rd	Redbreast: The Robin in Life and Literature	Dr Andrew Lack

2015

January 7th	Members Meeting Video 'Oxford Canal and Kirtlington Quarry And Peruvian Rainforests	Richard Simmons Helen Adams
February 4th	Wilts and Berks Canal Trust – Canal restoration - benefits to wildlife and the environment	Martin Buckland
March 4th	The plants and vegetation of New Caledonia	Dr Tim Waters
April 1st	AGM (start at 7:30pm) Lower Windrush Valley Project	Jane Bowley

Meetings are held in St Mary's Church, Kirtlington on Wednesdays at 7:45pm
Contact Christine Marsh, secretary, for more details – 01869 350433